Looking Backward In State

Her daughter, Miss Molly Byerly Wilson of Chicago, has arrived for the wedding, and will sing at the wedding ceremony tonight. She lived in Salina before going to Los Angeles, and later she lived for seven years in Europe, studying voice. Since her return she has been giving concerts in the United States and Canada, and at some later date, she may arrange a concert trip thru Kansus.

Just before the marriage service tonight she will sing "Little House o' Dreams," by Metcalf. After the service she will sing "In the Dark, in the Dew," by Coombs, "Since We Parted," by Allisen, and "Garden of Roses," by Schmidt. The wedding march will be "The Wedding Day," by Grieg, and will be played by Miss Josephine McKee.
